Attention:

Subject:

Gentlemen:

25X1A

Confirming telephone conversation with your [REDACTED] on November 19, 1965, this contract is terminated in whole for convenience of the Government, pursuant to Article 12 of Section B thereof, effective as of the close of business November 19, 1965.

Please proceed as required by the said Article under the circumstances and in particular [REDACTED] is of the shortest notice required by you in order for you to have the necessary cleared personnel here to disassemble and prepare the equipment for shipment. The issuance of such notice will then be coordinated with the arrangements we are able to make with CGA for disconnecting the water and electricity supplies. Please also let us know whether unused materials such as dye, dye-activator and Electrocolor print film and laminating film may be returned for refund.

Submission of final claim will, of course, have to await removal of the equipment.

Very truly yours,
